

Health professionals

Guidelines on multiple myeloma

This section should be used and applied only by health professionals competent in the field of cancer and, more specifically, by health professionals involved in the management of patients with multiple myeloma.

While these guidelines are based on the medical literature, they may not cover every clinical situation, and the judgment of clinicians remains essential.

Clinical research protocols

In this section, you will find the open clinical research protocols at Hôpital Maisonneuve-Rosemont regarding multiple myeloma.

To learn more